Notice No.: KRIET/SPORTS/2026-27/003 Date: 25 August 2026

To: All Students

Subject: Sports and Cultural Benefits for Institute Representatives

Students who represent KRIET at state or national level sports or cultural events are entitled to the benefits below, in addition to (and distinct from) the Sports and Cultural Excellence Scholarship described in the scholarship eligibility matrix (notice KRIET/SCHOLAR/2026-27/006).

Admission quota: 2 supernumerary seats per department each admission year, reserved for candidates holding a state or national level sports/cultural representation certificate, over and above the sanctioned intake in DEPARTMENTS

Attendance relaxation: a counted attendance minimum of 70% applies to institute representatives, against the general 75% minimum in the institute's Attendance Policy. Days spent representing KRIET at a recognised state or national sports or cultural event are marked "On Duty" and counted as present for attendance purposes, on production of the participation proof below, provided the student's counted attendance does not fall below 70%
